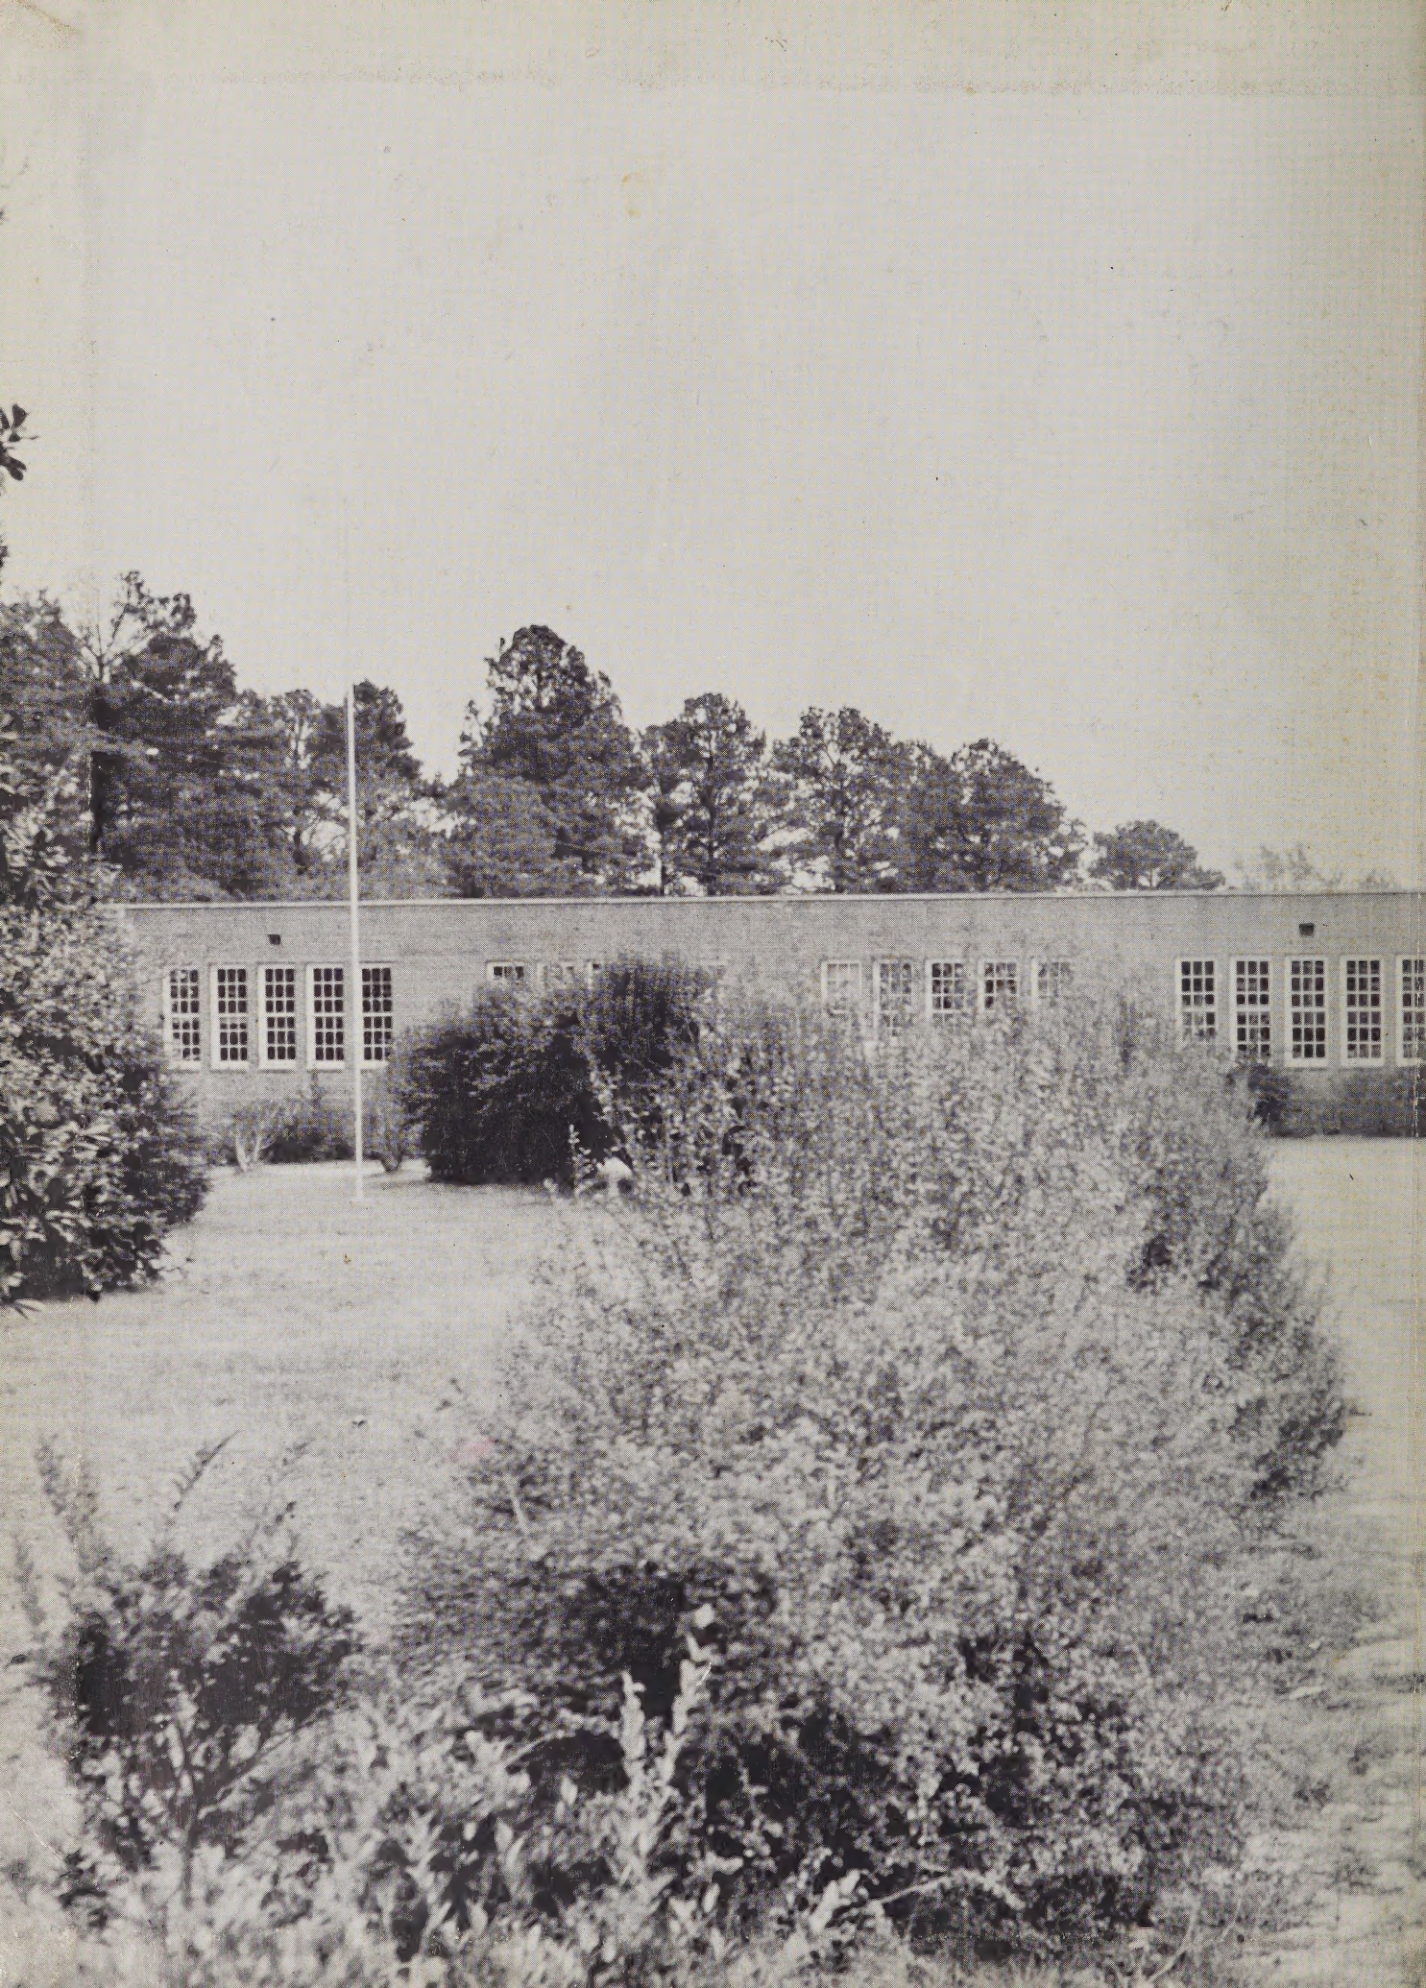
THE PINE CONE



Carol Cameron

You are a likable person, excellent student and a good actress. I consider it an honor and privilege to teach you and a certain other student.?????

Sincerely,
Walter E. Evanton

Carol—

You will always be a good friend of mine. Although I'm not the lucky one, I have thoroughly enjoyed your fellowship. I hope you will never forget the Junior-Senior banquet of 1950-51. And hope you will always retain your nice personality. This something all of us needs a lot more of.

FORWARD

To the students of Greenwood High School: It is with pleasure we present Volume III of THE PINE CONE. We hope this book will make you feel that you are back with your friends at Greenwood High School.

The Pine Cone Staff of 1952 deeply appreciates your cooperation in helping us to make this book possible.

We now present----The 1952 PINE CONE.

The Annual Staff

Dedication

We, the student body, dedicate with pleasure, Volume III of THE PINE CONE of Greenwood High School to Miss Ollie Ann Purvis. She has made many contributions to our future lives through her teaching and friendliness. We can never thank her enough for her leadership, kindness, and understanding as a teacher and as a friend.

Last Will And Testament

We the members of the '52 graduating class of Greenwood High School, are about to resume abnormal an unindustrious role in life, which were interrupted four years ago when we were faced with the crisis-to be or not to be-educated! We chose "to be". Now with mingled joy and sadness, we leave our worn text books and in this, our last will and testament, bequeath to those we leave behind the things, both large and small, that have helped make school days interesting here at G. H. S.

To Dermont Farmer, I, Jack Brooks, leave my ability to get along with Miss Purvis with sincere hopes he will make good use of it.

I, Ruth Bullard, regretfully leave my ability to study to Pat Sherron and my place on the cheerleading squad to Willena Matthews.

My ability to be in the Beta Club, I, Helen Coffer, leave to Lawrence Simpson and my cheerleading ability to Pricilla Stone.

I, Jimmy Coggins will my good looks and many friends to Billy Stanley and hope he'll prosper from them.

I, Marcella Coggins, do reluctantly pass my ability to get along with Mr. Kelly to Sue Coleman and the store to Dennis Maddox.

I, Velma Coley, do bequeath my position as co-captain to Becky Nicholson and my good looks to Faye Bullis.

I, Helen Cox, leave my neatness to Patsy Sue Shinault and my slimness to Luretia Bullis.

I, Earl Farmer, leave my baby ways to any freshman and bus "21" to Phillip Maddox.

To Lynn Rogers, I, Opal Nell Hancock, pass my friendly ways, in hopes he can use them.

To William Stutts, I, Wilma Hoffman, bequeath my place in the office and my place on the annual staff.

I, Geneva Lemons, pass my ability to get and keep a boy friend to Mary Ruth Key.

I, Shirley Maddox, do reluctantly pass my place on the basketball team to Martha Shaw and my ability to argue to Britt Taylor.

My seat in French, I, Carolyn Matthews, leave to Wade Butner but my wit I will take with me for future use.

I, Johnny Matthews, leave my physics knowledge to David Burge and my height to Bill Perkins.

I, Chloe Robinson, leave my quiet ways to Harold Chilton. Make good use of them Harold.

Reluctantly I, Sarah Smith, bequeath to Jean Stone my ability to get along with teachers and my place in glee club to Max Matthews in hopes his voice will change soon enough for him to use it.

I, Dewey Yarborough, leave my ability to sing to Duncan McLeod. My many other talents I take with me.

To Weldon Chilton, I, Marjorie Yarborough, do bequeath my place on the debate team and my position as Senior Class president to Wyatt Upchurch.

I, Mary Elizabeth Thomas, do pass my ability to make A's on to Joe Bill Johnson.

To Wayne Medlin I, Marvin Gaster, leave my ability to keep quiet in class.

I, Geneva Willett, will my ability to ride in a Studebaker to anyone who has the power to keep it.

To Kathleen Holland I, Elmore Spivey, leave my red hair.

We, the Seniors, leave (we hope) to Mr. Dail a rising Senior Class which will be most cooperative and laugh at all his jokes??????????

We, the Senior basketball girls, leave our beat up tennis shoes and our well-worn suits.

The Senior boys leave to the Sophmore boys the girls of the Sophmore class.

We, the Seniors, leave the Freshman our chewed up pencils, used notebooks, worn out desk and a faculty of tired teachers in hopes that they will make better use of them than we did.

To the Juniors, the Seniors leave our dignity and our places in the Senior Class room.

Prophecy

''Long distance, please, long distance, this is Helen Coffer at Telo-Television, 22551-0 in Sanford, N. C. Please connect me with Sarah Smith at The Waldorf Hotel, New York, N. Y.''

''Hello, Sarah, I saw in the Sanford Times where you and Dewey Yarborough were co-starring in 'Flowers for Myrtle' otherwise known as, 'Movie Mad-House,' and I just had to call you to congratulate you on your success in Hollywood.''

''Thanks, Helen, I must admit you haven't changed much. That stewardess uniform looks good on you. Isn't it nice that Elmore Spivey had the ingenious mind to invent this Telo-Television, because I just must show you this new dress I bought at MADAME VOGUE, owned and operated by Helen Cox and Geneva Willett. Velma Coley has become famous, modeling Helen's creation of 'Parasion,' a beautiful black crepe dress made to be worn by women.''

''Yes, Sarah, I have one in my own wardrobe. There is so much I want to tell you, especially about some of our classmates I saw the other day. I had a card from Chloe Robinson yesterday. Chloe and her husband are raising baby alligators in the Florida Everglades.''

''Helen, listen to this: the other day I made a personal appearance tour in Greensboro, N. C. and you can imagine my complete amazement when someone told me that Earl Farmer is now Professor of Palaeo Theology at Womans College. He and his wife, Carolyn Matthews, are settled down comfortable with an adorable little family of eight.''

''Why, Sarah, that is hard to believe. Where did Earl get such amibition? Some of those boys have really gone far since we graduated ten years ago. You say 'who.''

''For instance, Jimmy Coggins. He is the most sought after bachelor in Hollywood; and just across the street from me is THE GOLDEN GOOSE, bought recently by Ruth Bullard. She graduated from curb girl in North Carolina to become the best curb girl in the U.S.A.; she earned the title.''

''Isn't it wonderful Sarah. I could not have predicted such a glorious out-come, remembering them when we were struggling through our senior year. I know we worked hard to make our class famous, and we have.''

''Brace yourself for this one. I dropped in at Greenwood School the other day and you could never guess who is principal now. None other than our own Marvin Gaster. He has taken over Mr. Morgan's position, cigar and all. I over-heard that the first official action he took was to destroy completely all of his own high school grades. Not even his secretary, Marcella Coggins, (poor girl--had to give her something to do) knew of his poor record in school.''

''Another one of our boys to become famous is Jack Brooks. He had won applause from all by his excellent presiding as President of The United Nations; and his interpreter is Mary E. Thomas, the only person from Mr. Dail's class that can speak perfect French. Opal Nell Hancock is also in Paris. She married Count Aly Hugart Ghandi Bullis, a retired shoestring salesman made rich by a former marriage.''

''Really Sarah, I'm so thrilled to hear from all our classmates. I forgot to tell you that Geneva Lemons, beg your pardon, Geneva Matthews, is now selling the amazing insurance policy that insures your girlish figure never to sag. She has taken over Monroe's business while he stays at home curling the little Monroe s hair. They too are working hard on a baseball team. When have you heard from Ann Maddox?''

''You mean you haven't heard? She is in Reno getting her third divorce from Gene Fraley. They can't make up their minds.''

''Helen, her close friend Wilma Hoffman has made Sonja Heni look cheap. She is the most talked about ice skater in the world. She is the Ice Capades number one entertainer.''

''I always thought she would be something great. Marjorie Yarborough is doing all right, too. She is the first woman to be Ambassador to Mars. The scientist discovered she was the only person that could talk to the Marsians.''

''Heavens, Sarah! I must hang up for this time before I run my Telo-Television bill so high I can't pay for it. Hey! Wait just a minute. I forgot the most important big news of all. Johnny Matthews was elected Mayor of Lemon Springs, N. C. last week, and he said in his campaign speech: 'This little town shall go down in history.' (Ancient Greek, of course.)''

''My plane is due to leave in an hour, and I must get dressed. Sarah, call me soon. Bye, now!''

The story of this play centers around the Abbot family, in which there are three daughters. Dorothy and Eloise are the pride and joy of their Mother, Nancy Abbot. Jacqueline, the youngest daughter, and a tomboy, is the idol of her father, John Abbot. At the close of the play Dorothy and Eloise are happily married. Jacqueline, who has won the State Golf Championship for women, falls in love with Larry Salisbury, a childhood pal.

Dear Carol

It has been fun sitting with you in English & History and listening to your troubles. I have enjoyed this year and all the things we have be in together. May life deal out to you all that you so richly deserve

Always Mozelle.

Dear Carol,

Yes, here's another one of the gang! No kidding, it's really been a year packed with fun & I'll never forget the good times we've had. How could I, with you involved? But, I look forward to a better year, when we finally get to be dignified Seniors. Carol, here's wishing for you — the best of everything in life. Don't forget to stay "sweet."

Love,
Joye

Dear Carol,

I'll never forget the good times we have had at G. H. S. But I hope to have more next year as we will be leaving this place. Here's wishing for you the best in everything that you do.

Always love ya!
Ruth.

Carol,

I've really enjoyed being your friend. We've really had some fun — Laurel we. I've enjoyed going places, dating with you, and ah well — just being with you. Carol, just being so stubborn and give the poor boys a break. He deserves one. Just remember everything I've told you

Love Carolyn.

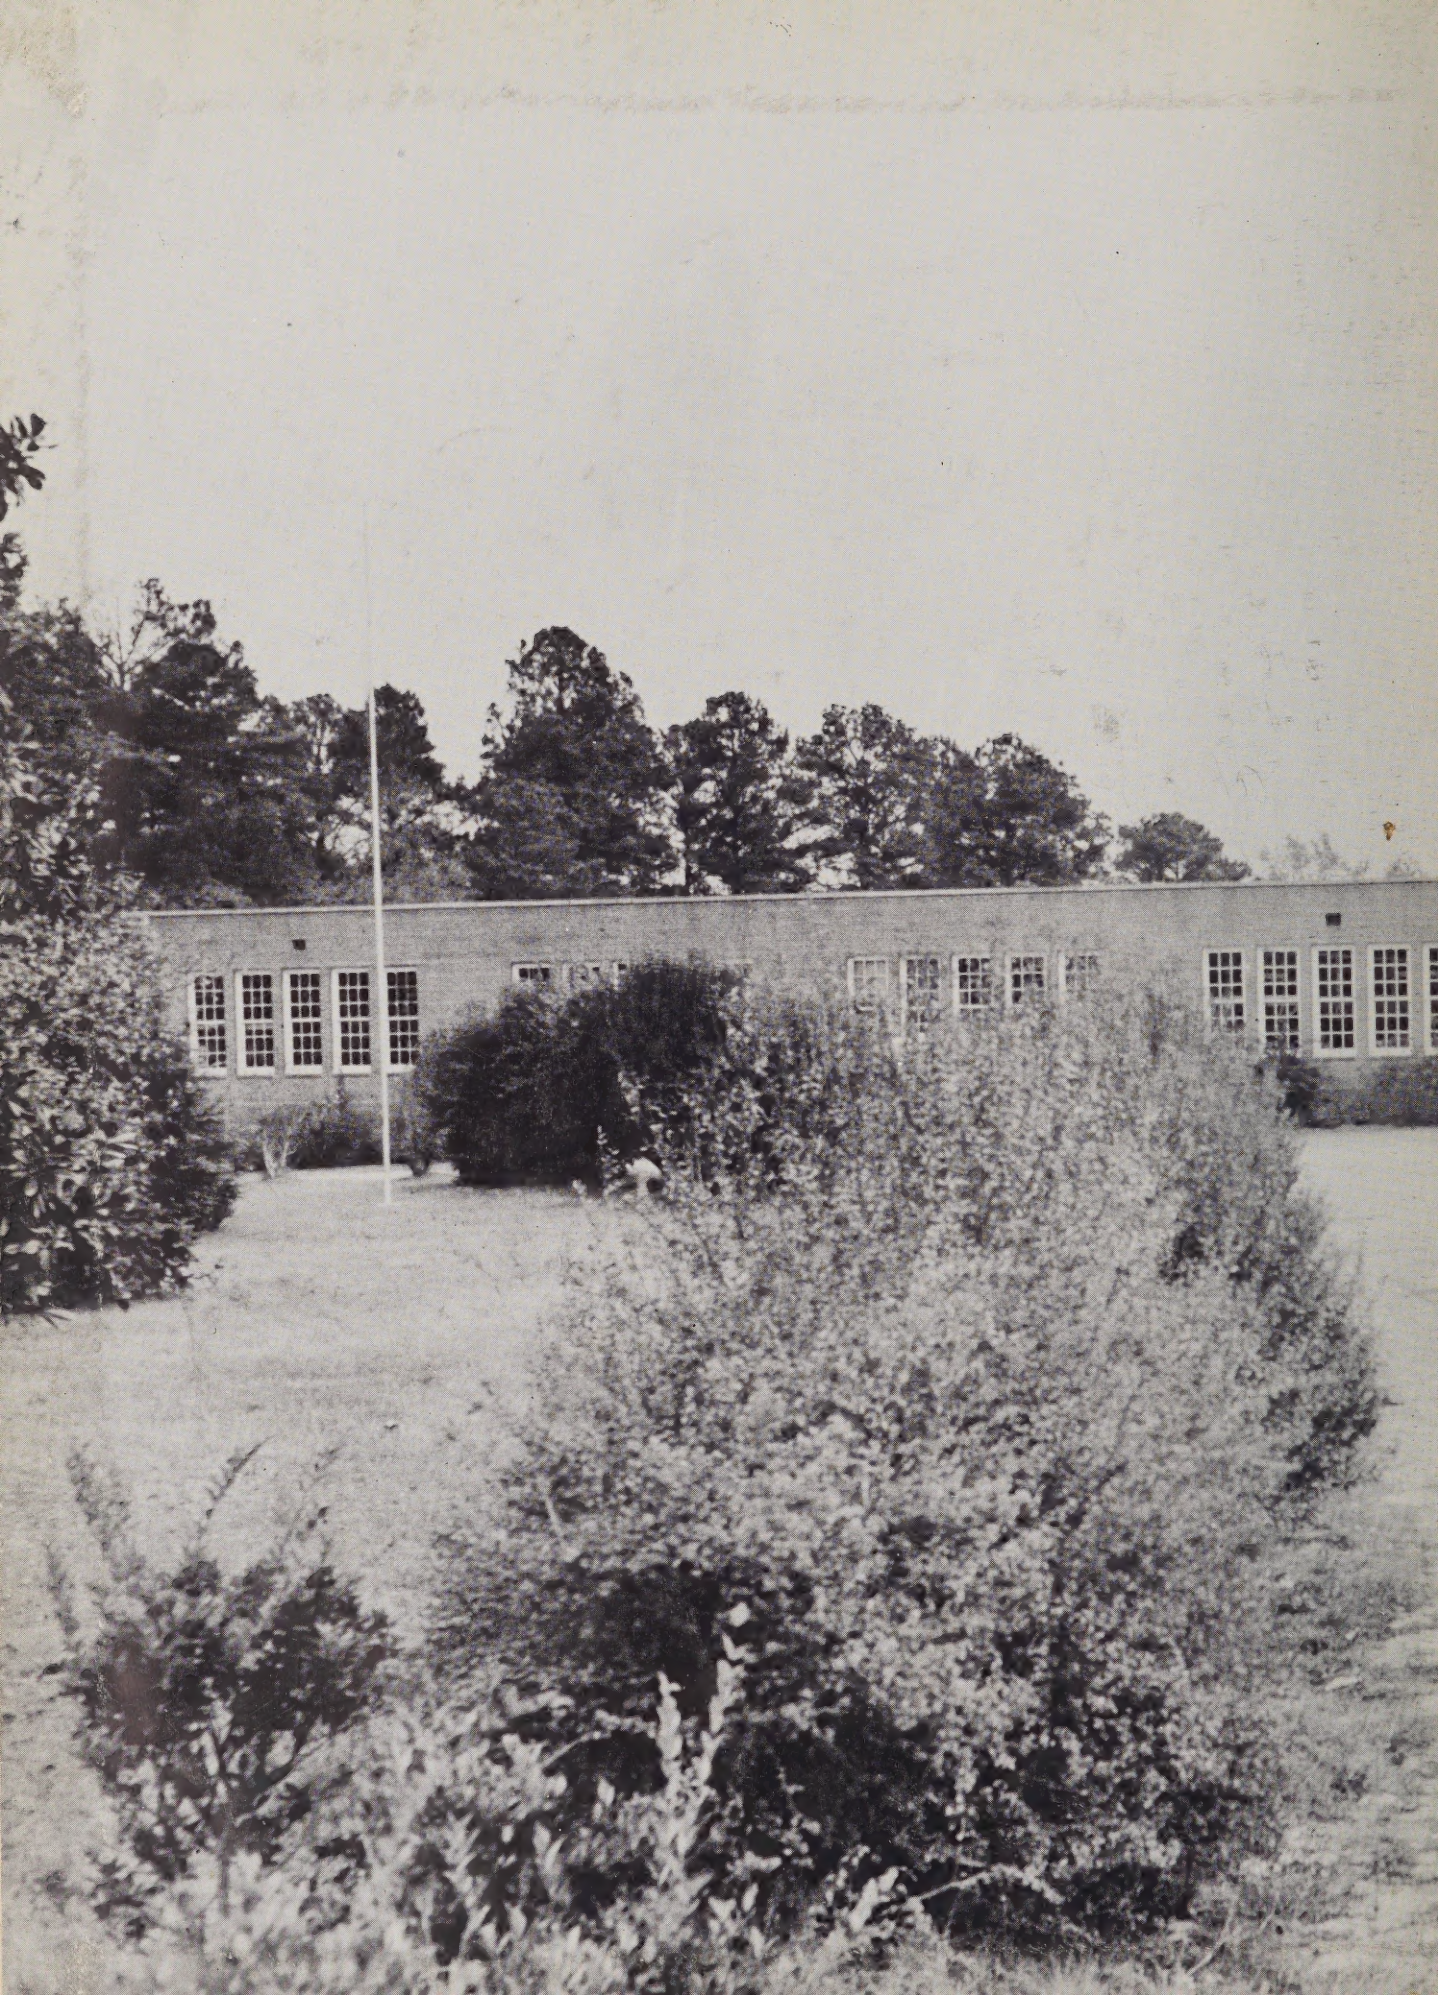
Dear Carol,

I'll never forget the ~~the~~ fun we have had this year and the years past. You were a wonderful mother in "Tomboy." In the years to come I hope you will be a good mother to your kids as well as to me. I wish you the best of everything all through the years. Here's hoping you & Melvin get along fine.

Love
Juretta

Carol,

I have really enjoyed knowing you and being in school with you. I'll miss being here next year and please, Carol, make the most of it. It's worth it.

Luck & luck to you & yours. Keep your fingers crossed for me. I need it. Be good & have fun. And above all, don't forget me & the class of "52".


Love,
Ann
